

HOLOHOLO BOOKMOBILE SERVICE REQUEST FORM

www.librarieshawaii.org

The Holoholo Bookmobile supports the lifelong learning needs of the Maui community by providing equal access to library materials and services. Based out of Wailuku Public Library, we nurture a lifelong love of reading and learning and serve as an extension of the Hawaii State Public Library System.

Type of Stop: Institution School Public Housing Complex

Date: _____ Name of Requestor: _____

Facility/Institution: _____

Address: _____

E-mail address: _____ Phone: _____

Description of where we would park (attach map/image if available):

Preferred day of the week (number 1-5, 1 being first choice): ___ Mon ___ Tues ___ Wed ___ Thurs ___ Fri

Preferred time of day: morning afternoon

Preferred frequency of visits: Continuing One time event Date/Time _____

Anticipated regular attendance: _____

Anticipated age levels present for stop: (check all that apply)

Preschool Children Teens Adults Seniors

The proposed location has/is: (check all that apply)

- Space and parking on level ground to accommodate bookmobile (40' long x 10' wide and 8' awning extension)
- On-site staff to be present during any bookmobile service
- Restroom facilities for library staff
- Open and accessible to the general public
- Safe and sufficient outdoor lighting for stops after dark

Return completed form to Jessica Gleason, Bookmobile Librarian
Wailuku Public Library, 251 S. High St., Wailuku, HI 96793
(808) 243-5766 phone (808) 243-5768 fax

jessica.gleason@librarieshawaii.org

<https://www.librarieshawaii.org/visit/bookmobiles/maui-bookmobile/>